

Ideas...

(for creating a collaborative team vibe that meets identified needs)

Success is important to all of us but we all have different definitions of success
A harmonious and respectful environment is important to us all - the how will come soon!
Collaboration each person bring their strengths to the team
Discussing our personalities and needs at the beginning. Discussing what "success" means for all of us
Discussed when we will complete work/meet to make sure our expectations are all on the same page.
We agree to achieve the goal of bring up a good project beneficial for the community
Clarity of Expectations within the group and our project.
Discussed our potential issues and the obstacles we might face in our policy issue.
Discussed and set out roles for our group members.
Discuss scope of work needs to be done and clarify each team member's roles and responsibilities.
Clarity on communication styles
Be respectful of our time
Be clear on deadlines and the roles of the participants in the team